My Learnings...

You're only really happy when you're being/doing what you love

Happiness is inside us, not out there

To achieve both happiness and fulfillment do something for someone else!

Discover your Why

www.startwithwhy.com

Look out for Simon Sinek's new book, 'Find Your Why : A Practical Guide to Discovering Purpose for You or Your Team' (available 6th December)

Ask more limbic questions

'How does that make you feel?' 'When are you the most happy?'
'What make you the most proud?' 'What do you think of...'

Learn and take pleasure from every small victory!
